

I've had XM since the beginning and it is one of the most promising new technologies I have used in years. Please keep government hands off this wonderful new technology... all they will do is stifle future creativity!
Dave